About PASC: The Pennsylvania Association of Senior Centers (PASC) is a statewide, professional, non-profit organization dedicated to the enhancement of Senior Centers for the benefit of older adults. The organization was started more than a decade ago by a group of visionaries who recognized the importance of properly staffed and organized senior centers across the Commonwealth. Their vision extended into areas important to the successful operations of senior centers and to the communities that support them.

PASC has set for itself the mission that:

- Provide professional training towards the enhancement of Senior Centers.
- Promote communication with policy makers in the Commonwealth.
- Educate the public about the crucial role of Senior Centers.
- Work cooperatively with the Pennsylvania Department of Aging and Long Term Living, and Pennsylvania Association of Area Agencies on Aging (P4A).
- Offer ideas and information for improving the operations of Senior Centers

PASC Membership Benefits Include:

- ✓ Networking opportunities on a regional and statewide level provide creative and successful programming and fundraising ideas.
- ✓ A website that provides information on PASC activities, important links.
- ✓ A quarterly newsletter which highlights upcoming events, programs, ideas, and information important to the senior field.
- ✓ A professional advocate to promote legislation in the interest of senior centers and the older adults they serve.
- ✓ Professional training and development opportunities throughout the state including a professional certificate program offered through Penn State University.
- ✓ Assistance in completing the Senior Center Accreditation Program and the intensive training track for Senior Center personnel.

Since you care about older adults and the future of senior centers, please join us. The support of our membership drives everything else PASC is able to do for you and your center.
